

Various bug fixes and improvements such as

- enhanced Error Messaging for Incorrect Account Logins: clear and concise error messages for incorrect login attempts.
- heightened User Security: implementation of supplementary security measures to safeguard user data.
- enhanced Account Verification for Third-Party Invitation Links
- clearer instructions on which document to access for invited accounts: precise guidance on the required account for document access.
- ability to Request a New Link incase of Invalid Links: easily request a fresh access link with a simple button press.

Account mismatch

Current user
[Redacted]

Invited user
[Redacted]

This invitation is not intended for the account you are currently logged in with. To continue, please perform one of the following actions.

Create new account for invited email

Logout and Login with invited user

Additional check necessary

For your security we need to do an additional check. Request a new link to your email [Redacted] to access the document.

Should you be logged in with the correct account already, you can also open the document from the DeepSign Cockpit instead.

Open DeepSign Cockpit

Request new link

Additional check necessary

To access the document, we need to send you a new secure link. The link will be sent to [Redacted]. If you already have an account with this email, you can alternatively log in.

Log in

Request new link